USE information to explain communicative range of purposes, written texts, characters, and social interactions.

Spoken ideas and cultures are key to understanding perspectives and practices.

Familiar devices and contexts influence sounds, situations, and digital knowledge.

Interactions and connections help interpret meanings and sustain opinions.

People make choices and decisions based on resources and accessibility.

Persuasive writing and personal voices are essential in global contexts.

Therefore, using diverse methods and approaches enhances our understanding of the world.
Chinese Background Language Learner Pathway (7-10 sequence)
Achievement Standards