

Geography

Bringing it to Life Questions

What do you observe?

Use senses to make observations through the 7 key concepts about local places.

What is this place?

What do you notice?

Where is this place?

How is this place used?

What do you observe?

What questions do you have?

Pose questions about what places are like and how they connect to other places and people.

What are the stories about this place?

Why is this place here?

What happens here?

What are the features of this place?

What questions do you have?

What can you do to find out?

Collect and record information about what a place is like.

What ideas do you have about this place?

Who can you ask about it?

If you can't go there - how can you find out about a place?

What can you do to find out?

How can you represent this?

To represent data.

How can you show or map what you found?

Which words could you use?

How can you show where this place is?

How can you show how big or small the spaces are?

How can you represent this?

How can you make sense of this?

Interpret and draw conclusions from the inquiry.

What have you found out about this place?

How does this help you answer your questions?

How can you make sense of this?

How can you share ideas and respond?

Present information, share ideas with others and think about responses.

Who needs to know about this?

How can you share this with others?

How might this change the way you think and act?

How can you share ideas and respond?