

English

Bringing it to Life Questions

What do you already think?

What do you already know about the topic?

Why would we want to read/view/listen to this text?

What questions do you have?

What do you already think?

Can you identify purposes,
contexts and audiences?

?

What is the purpose of this text?

Who is the audience for this text?

What ideas/information do you expect from this text?

Can you identify purposes, contexts and audience?

How do you make meanings?

Which strategies help you make meaning from the text?

What are the language features of this text?

Whose view does the text represent?

How do you make meanings?

How can you make connections?

Does the author use strategies to engage the audience?

What are the similarities or differences in story lines?

How can you make connections?

What do you think now?

What do you think about the characters, setting, events or information now that you have read, viewed or listened to the text?

How can you summarise your ideas and the ideas of others?

What do you think now?

In what ways can you express your ideas,
experiences and information?

What texts can you plan, draft and publish by choosing structures and features appropriate to purpose and audience?

How can you edit and improve your texts?

In what ways can you express your ideas, experiences and information?