

future informed personal trade-offs used economies needed variations involved planning market effects successful producers may people individuals strategies contribute influence respond workplace advantage different exist measured now behaviour participants economy businesses make types competitive responsibilities performance manage income global derive economic consumers use financial governments relationship rewards organisational possible changing interact provide decisions entrepreneurial opportunities important work consumer services benefit choices risks associated affect conditions goods markets

Economics and Business
Key Questions