

diversity security production effects Water learn Inquiry study studies process natural Peoples Geography Skills environments introduced concepts geographical hazards programming liveability connections concepts geographical cultures develop Islander level global order Geographical organised contexts focuses example distinctive significance investigate integrated developed located management different role action concept across made appropriate live world decisions unit inquiry aspects evaluate similar life services diverse like investigated urban Geographies unit appropriate change investigating place specific differences units sustainability Places Understanding using examine Landforms investigation population scale interrelated lives challenges Torres neighbouring variety develops shape learning Strait environmental wellbeing Knowledge drawn local within features Earth manner detail maps America people food interconnections characteristics perceived human environment influence landforms opportunities special planning Aboriginal location actions throughout region two mental continues landscapes explore geography connected major space information

Year Level Description